Design Competition Winners Named

The Los Angeles Chapter Of The American Society of Interior Designers 2008 Excellence in Design Awards, Brings Out The Best

The American Society of Interior Designers, Los Angeles chapter has announced the winners of its recent 2008 Excellence in Design competition. CALIFORNIA HOMES sponsored this year's event, and Susan McFadden, the magazine's editor, participated in the judging along with selected members of the ASID Orange County Chapter. The winning entries are presented here.

TRACY MURDOCK

RESIDENTIAL 2,500-5,000 Square feet
Tracy Murdock honed her skills while married to her design mentor, developer and hotelier, David H Murdock. Within ten years she established herself as an award winning designer. Shown here is a special wall created to display a client's bottle collection. The rice paper lined acrylic back panels and grids are lit from behind to create the illusion that each bottle is floating.
